InformationInstructions:

A basic background investigation refers to an investigation of personal relationships that are of importance for security clearance. The investigation must include a security clearance interview, gathering and assessment of qualifications, certificates, references and other relevant information. The documents obtained must describe employment and education for the past 5 years including any gaps more than 28 days. Please note that this documentation should not be attached to the application.

The operator must ensure that the security clearance is intended for the right person through a reliable identity control.

Swedish Citizens:

A Swedish citizen must present to the operator a valid passport, ID card or other ID document issued by the Swedish authority.

Foreign Citizens:

A foreign national must present to the operator a valid national passport or national ID-card (EU-citizen). When applying for a background check for foreign nationals, a certified copy of the original valid passport or national ID-card must be attached to the application. The copy must be in colour and include relevant pages showing e.g. photograph, social security number, full name, signature, country of birth, gender, validity period and MRZ-code. The passport's hardcover is also regarded as relevant pages.

The certification must be placed or written in such a way that the information on the identity document does not become hidden or difficult to translate and must contain the following information:

- a. True copy of the original document
- b. Signature and name in block letters
- c. Telephone number

Restrictions:

The Swedish Tax Agency and the Swedish Migration Agency have restrictions on passports and ID documents from certain countries and are not accepted as proof of identity. The Swedish Transport Agency complies with these restrictions, which means that these identity documents will not be accepted for verifying identity when applying for background checks.

Only after the person for whom the background check concerns has undergone an approved basic investigation, including a security clearance interview, and is deemed trustworthy by the operator with the interests protected in the Security Protection Act (2018:585) and in general as loyal from a security point of view in accordance with Chapter 3. Section 2 of the Security Protection Act shall a correctly completed application for a background check with the attached appendices be sent to the Swedish Transport Agency.

Country of residence other than Sweden during the last five years:

When an operator employs a person who has had a country of residence* other than Sweden during the past five years, the person must be able to present extracts from criminal records or equivalent from the authorities in the respective country/countries of residence showing that no crimes have been committed. The extract must be in English or Swedish or translated into one of these languages and come from an authority or an official source. The extract must be attached to the application for a criminal records check. If an extract is not attached, the application is not complete.

* Country of residence refers to any country in which a person has been resident continuously for six months or more; an interruption means unreported time for more than 28 days in the employment or training list.

NOTE! The information appendix should not be attached to the Application for a criminal records check for aviation security to the Swedish Transport Agency.
